Description

Approximate Room Sizes

THE PROPERTY Step into luxury with this exquisite detached home, prominently positioned within the development and constructed in 2020, still benefiting from the remaining years of its 10-year new build warranty. From the moment you enter the welcoming entrance hall, you'll sense the quality and thoughtful design that defines this property.

The entrance hall not only serves as a warm introduction to the home but also offers practicality with stairs leading to the first floor, cleverly concealing a hidden storage compartment beneath. The living room is bathed in natural light, courtesy of windows on two aspects, creating an inviting and airy ambiance.

French doors beckon you to the garden, seamlessly connecting indoor and outdoor living spaces.

The well-appointed kitchen/diner is a culinary haven, featuring a range of units, integrated oven, and ample space for a dishwasher and fridge/freezer. A door leads to the utility room, home to the gas boiler, and providing space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. Conveniently, this area also offers access to the driveway via a door, and the ground floor cloakroom.

Venture to the first floor, where three generously sized bedrooms await. The master bedroom, complete with an ensuite, boasts fitted wardrobes that add both elegance and functionality. A family bathroom serves the additional bedrooms.

Externally, the property presents an open aspect to the front, enhancing its curb appeal. A bloc-paved driveway accommodates two cars, supplemented by additional visitor parking. The rear garden, predominantly laid to lawn, is complemented by a generous patio area, perfect for outdoor gatherings. A delightful surprise is the small semi-permanent external home office at the side of the property, offering a dedicated and inspiring workspace complete with light and power. A timber shed remains, providing additional storage options.
