THE LOCATION Newton Green is a charming village located in Suffolk, known for its picturesque setting and community-oriented atmosphere. The village is centred around a large, scenic green, and home to the historic Newton Green Golf Club. Established in 1907, this club offers residents unique access to an original 9-hole course set on common land, and full members enjoy discounted access to the more extensive 18-hole course.

The local pub, The Saracens Head, is a focal point of the village. This 15th-century establishment offers more than just a place to enjoy a pint; it also houses a handy village shop, making it a convenient stop for daily essentials. The Saracens Head is just a short stroll from the golf course, making it a popular spot for both locals and visitors alike.

Newton Green is well-connected to nearby towns, with Sudbury just 3 miles away, offering a range of shops, amenities, and a train station with links to London. Hadleigh and Colchester are also within easy reach, providing further options for shopping, dining, and entertainment.

The village is surrounded by lush countryside, offering scenic walking trails and stunning views of the Suffolk landscape. The area's natural beauty provides a peaceful retreat for nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts. For those seeking a blend of tranquil village life with easy access to larger towns, Newton Green offers an ideal setting.
