

£190,000

High Street, Clare

THE PROPERTY

A beautifully presented and recently converted Grade II listed ground floor apartment is all offered with no onward chain. The property opens into a bright, open-plan kitchen/living space. The kitchen features both wall and base units, integrated appliances including an oven, hob, and inset sink, plus additional storage cupboards.

The living area benefits from ample natural light and provides a comfortable space to relax. A door leads to a small hallway, giving access to a stylish shower room, double bedroom, and a handy storage cupboard. The modern shower room includes a walk-in shower, toilet, and sink with built-in storage.

The bedroom is a generous size and well-lit. Outside, residents can enjoy use of the communal front gardens, ideal for seating and dining. The apartment is accessible via Half Moon Yard or the High Street communal entrance, which also houses the postboxes and an external storage cupboard.

THE LOCATION

Clare is a picturesque Suffolk market town, steeped in history and full of character. It's known for its charming timber-framed buildings and the impressive Clare Castle, adding to its appeal.

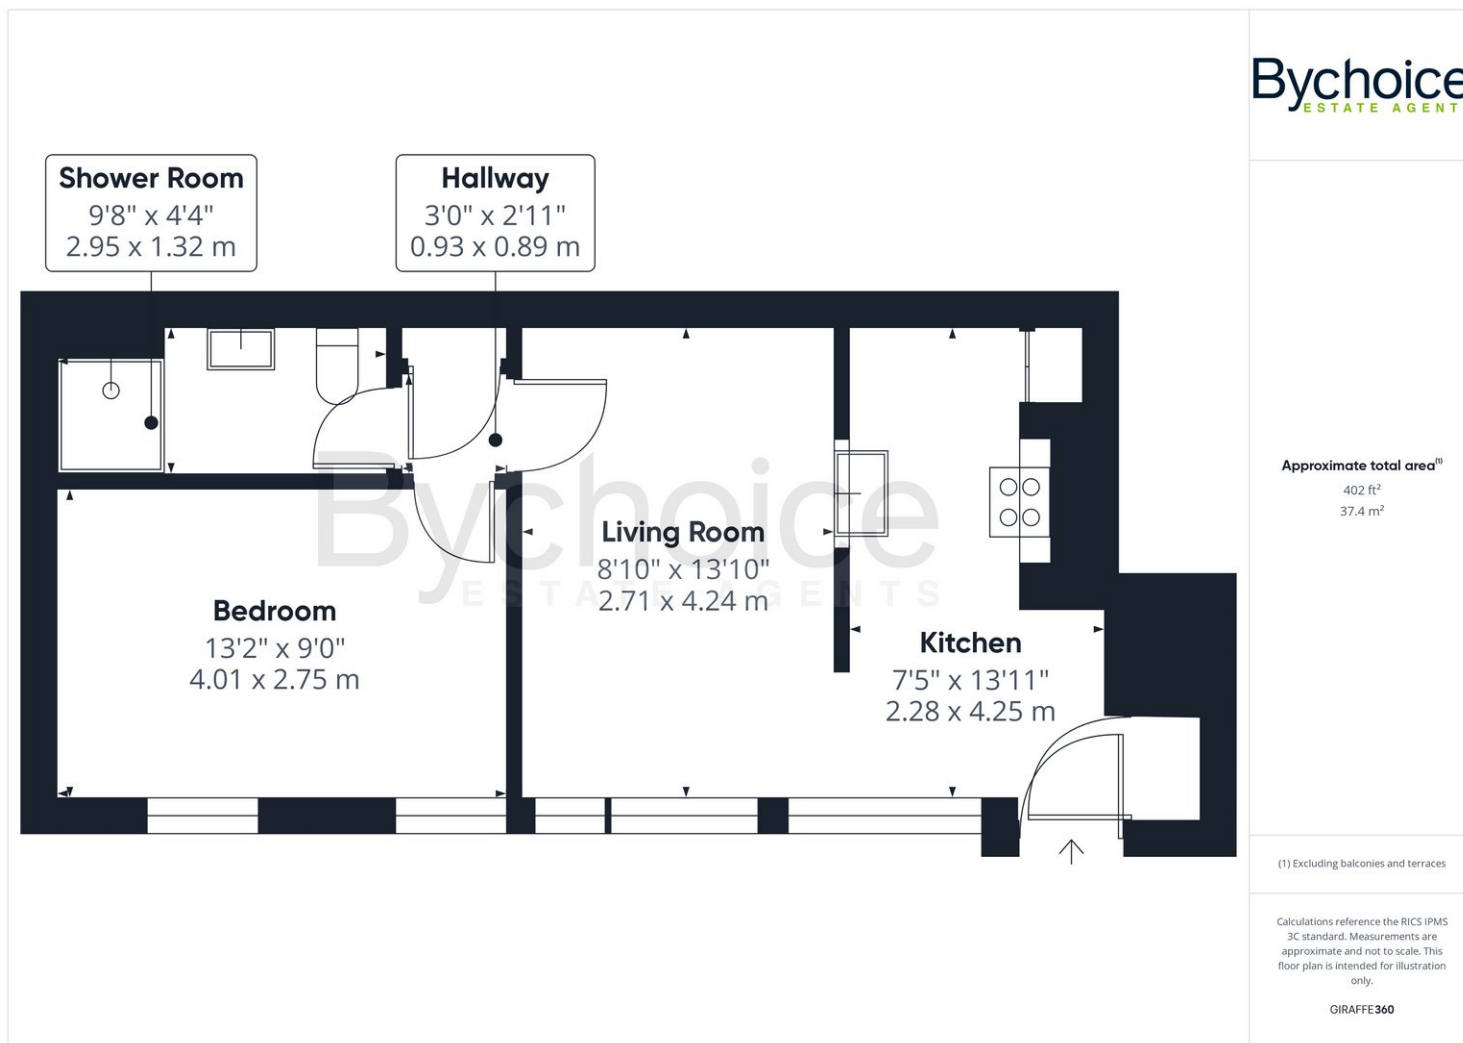

The town offers a range of amenities, including independent shops, cafes, and bakeries, as well as schools and healthcare facilities. Clare Country Park, just a short stroll from the property, provides scenic walking trails, a play area, and riverside picnic spots.

For wider amenities, Sudbury is just 7 miles away, and Bury St. Edmunds around 20 miles, offering further shopping, dining, and leisure options. Clare combines village charm with modern convenience, making it a highly desirable place to live.
