

£315,000

Dobbs Hill, Queens Close, Sudbury, Suffolk

This Victorian three-bedroom home offers charm, character, and modern convenience, set within walking distance of Sudbury's town centre. With its feature bay window, period fireplace, wood flooring, and original doors, the property retains its historic appeal while offering a practical layout and private garden.

The ground floor includes a welcoming hallway, a bay-fronted living room with French doors onto the garden, and a separate dining room with a feature arched window. The fitted kitchen provides ample storage with integrated oven and hob, while a modern ground floor shower room is finished in neutral tones.

Upstairs, three bedrooms offer flexible living arrangements: a generous principal bedroom, a second double overlooking the garden, and a third versatile room currently used as a dressing room.

The enclosed rear garden is a key feature, offering a private outdoor retreat with a decked terrace ideal for entertaining, mature borders, a lawn, and a useful shed.

Situated in the historic market town of Sudbury, this home enjoys access to a wealth of amenities. Sudbury is well known for its thriving market, independent shops, cafés, restaurants, and supermarkets. Families benefit from local schools, doctors, and leisure facilities, while commuters appreciate Sudbury's rail link to London Liverpool Street (via Marks Tey). The surrounding countryside, including the Stour Valley and Dedham Vale Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, provides endless opportunities for walking, cycling, and outdoor activities.

With its blend of period character, modern comforts, and a sought-after location, this home represents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a stylish property in one of Suffolk's most vibrant towns.
